The Official Vote of Ohio.

We publish in this week's BANNER, the official vote of Ohio at the Presidential Election, from which it will be seen that the total vote of the State was 529,598, distributed as follows: Grant, 281,852; Greely, 244,821; Black (Prohibition), 2,100; O'Connor, 1,163; scattering, 162.

It will be seen that in this Presidential election there were polled 9546 more votes than cast at the State election, when Wykoff, for Secretary of State, had a majority of 14,500. Grant gains over Wykoff's vote 15,922, while Greely falls behind Wiley 7459. This gives Grant a majority over Greely of 37,531.

The vote of Knox was as follows: Grant, 2773; Greely, 2730; Black, 57; O'Connor, 49. Grant's majority over Greely only 43. Grant received 12 votes less than Wykoff, for Secretary of State; while Greely received 402 less votes than Wiley for Secretary of State—thus showing that about 350 Democrats, (deducting the O'Connor vote) did not vote for Greely. Notwithstanding their extraordinary efforts the Radicals of Knox county have nothing to boast of in the vote given to General Grant.

A Trip Over Our New Railroad.

The Editor of the BANNER (accompanied by his wife and daughter) made his first trip over the Cleveland, Mr. Vernon and Columbus Railroad, from Mt. Vernon to Akron, on Friday, returning on Saturday. We left Mt. Vernon at 8 o'clock, A. M., and arrived at Akron at 4 o'clock, P. M. This is slow traveling, but it affords one an opportunity to see the country, and learn the news of the neighborhood at each station. The car was pretty well filled with passengers, all the way through, and a good deal of freight and express matter, such as butter, eggs, poultry, &c., was received at the principal stations on the road. The track, for a new one, is in excellent condition, being smooth and well ballasted. The bridges along the entire road, are well built and very substantial.

From the Mohican river to Black Creek, the road passes over a wild and romantic country, requiring some good engineering to carry it through. The deep cut at the summit and the grand trestle work on either side, will well repay a person for a visit over this portion of the road.

Down the valley of Black Creek, from Napoleon to Oxford, and up the valley of Killbuck, from Oxford to Millersburg, the track is in splendid condition. At Oxford, the work on the extension of the road to Dresden, Muskingum county, has been commenced, which will not only open to us the extensive coal fields of Holmes, Coshocton and Muskingum counties, but will give us a new and independent Railway communication with Southern Ohio and Cincinnati.

From Millersburg to Akron the road has been running for about twenty years, but the track will soon have to be relaid, as the ties and iron are pretty well worn out. This will be attended to soon as possible after the line is opened to Columbus.

At Orrville we were delayed for over an hour, or until some six different freight trains, going East and West on the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway had gone through the tedious process of switching, and loading and unloading freight. This delay, we understand, is encountered every day, and will continue until a new time table can be agreed upon, which will give the trains on the Mt. Vernon road the privilege of passing.

Orrville is a flourishing and enterprising town, of about 1,000 population, and receives and sends away an immense amount of freight. It has two good hotels, the Doncaster House and the Hurd House, (named after Judge Hurd), and supports a newspaper.

Our stay in Akron being brief, we did not find time to go much over the city, and witness the improvements that have taken place since we last visited there in February, 1871, at the time of the Editorial Convention. But the City has greatly increased in population and business since then; and many manufacturing establishments and fine dwelling houses have been built. But the largest and most attractive building that has been erected, is Buchtel College, recently dedicated and now in the full tide of success. It is under the special patronage of the Universalist denomination of Christians, and owes its existence to the munificence of Lewis R. Buchtel, Esq., a wealthy manufacturer of Akron, and some other public spirited gentlemen.

We visited the two leading printing offices while in Akron. The Times, published by our friend L. S. EVERETT, is the Democratic organ, and although comparatively a new paper, is enjoying a large circulation and a high degree of prosperity. Its local department is very full and complete. The old Beacon, the Republican organ, although twice destroyed by fire, is now on a firmer basis and in a more flourishing condition than during any former period of its existence. It is published daily and weekly by a joint stock company, of which our old friend S. A. LANE, Esq., is the leading spirit and business manager. Their new office is fitted up in metropolitan style, with all the modern improvements in machinery, &c., making it full and complete in every department.

The first story is divided into two compartments, the business office and blank book and stationary department being in front and the editorial room in the rear. The composing and editorial rooms are on the second floor. The press room is in the basement, and the engine room in a cellar underneath. The building, which it has three stories in front, has five stories in the rear. An elevator, worked by steam power, carries the forms to and from the press room, and is also used in conveying the workmen to the different stories. The entire building is heated by steam.

While in Akron of course we called upon that extensive dealer and enterprising, whole-souled citizen, GEORGE WELCH, Esq. He is doing an immense business; and to the wholesale grocery and drug trade, he has recently added a variety of department, where everything in the notion line from a baby's rattle to a house-furnishing outfit can be obtained. Mr. Welch shipped the first bill of goods and bought the first through ticket from Akron to Mt. Vernon, over our new Railroad. [We may add that Mr. W. has now completed and ready for occupancy one of the handsomest, best arranged and most complete private residences in Akron, and no man is more deserving of a good home than he is.]

Akron is very much in need of a first-class hotel. They have a miserable old rat hole there, called the Empire House, which was erected by a grandson of Noah, or some other man, where third-rate accommodations are furnished at first-class prices.

While in Akron on Saturday at 11 o'clock A. M., we returned trip, and arrived at Mt. Vernon at 7 P. M. General Jones, the gentlemanly and efficient Superintendent of the road, came over on the train, and Bishop and Mrs. Babbitt joined us at Orrville, and made their first trip over the new road to Gambier.

About one hundred French communists held a meeting in New York on Monday night week at which funds were subscribed for the widows and orphans of the communists, who fell in the late struggle in France. It was stated that these widows and orphans were suffering terribly at Paris and Belleville, from hunger and cold. The money subscribed for the fund collected by a similar organization in New York, will be forwarded shortly to the sufferers.

The wood pavement bribery investigation in Philadelphia discloses the fact that one of the parties, striving for a wood pavement on Broad street, would have had a clear one hundred thousand dollars to "divide" among his friends if he should get the contract.

When Chicago was burned there was no offer of relief from the National Treasury at Washington. But when Boston is consumed its head is prompt to extend assistance. Reason the prompt capitalists govern this country.

Trouble in the Grant Family.

Jesse R. Grant, the father of the President, is a Postmaster at Covington, Ky. He is a very old man, having arrived at this period of second childhood, and hence he is incapable of attending to the duties of the office. But he positively refuses to resign. The Special Agent of the Post Office Department, Mr. Shad. Easton, was requested to take charge of the office, but upon going there he was peremptorily ordered away by old man Grant, accompanied by a threat that he would split his head if he did not do so. Easton wrote to the President on the subject, and received the following answer:

"EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON CITY, Sept. 4, 1872. "MY DEAR MR. EASTON: I have just received your letter inclosing your resignation of the office of Postmaster at Covington Post-office, with the reasons therefor. I beg you to suspend action in the matter for the present. I regret very much that my father should attempt to interfere in your management of the office. I shall write him at once to desist, and to send him his resignation, as I am satisfied he will never again be competent to discharge the duties of the office.

"Very truly your friend, "U. S. GRANT."

Wing versus Sapp.

We last week gave Major Sapp a hearing in our columns; and wishing to be fair and impartial as between our Republican friends, we this week make room for the reply of Dr. Wing. Major Sapp, in a note to the editor of the BANNER, prefacing his article which we inserted last week, has the assurance to say we were the authors of the charges "against him." This is a little "too thin," Major, but entirely characteristic. The "charges" were made by your own confidential clerk, were duly sworn to, and are now on file in the proper Department at Washington. As to the character of these charges, the public can the better judge, after perusing Dr. Wing's comprehensive summary which we publish to-day.

Death of Gen. Edward Ball.

ZANESVILLE, O., Nov. 22.—Gen. Edward Ball, of this city, lost his life to-day by a terrible accident. He was engaged in loading cattle into a stock-car at the railroad, when his foot got caught in the frog of a switch. He was attempting at the time to get out of the way of an approaching locomotive. He was unable to extricate himself, and those who were near him failed, for some reason, to assist him. The engine struck him and passed over him, mauling him in a terrible manner. He was instantly killed. General Ball was one of our best known citizens. He was at one time Sergeant-at-Arms of the National House of Representatives, and was a member of the Ohio House of Representatives from Muskingum, in the session of 1863-4.

Serious Illness of Horace Greely.

News come to us from New York that Horace Greely is seriously ill, suffering from nervous prostration—almost to the borders of insanity. During the last few weeks of his wife's sickness, he scarcely left her bedside for a moment, and since her death he has suffered great mental and physical prostration, being unable to either sleep or eat. The rumor that he was taken to the Bloomingdale Asylum is a mistake. He remains at the house of Mr. Stewart, in Tarrytown; and his physicians hope, that with rest and quiet he will be restored to his accustomed health.

A New White House Proposed.

The opinion is entertained by many that the President's residence should be situated in a more healthy locality north of Washington, and a bill has been prepared to be offered in Congress providing for the construction of a new edifice for the President, and also that the present mansion be converted into an office for the transaction of merely Executive business.

The delegation of Saco and Fox Indians of Missouri, who arrived at Washington several days ago from Nebraska and Kansas, had a talk with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, Walker, yesterday, in which they expressed the desire of their people that one-half the proceeds of their present reservation, which is soon to be sold, may be invested and held by the Government as a school fund for their children.

Returns from Illinois like several other States show that General Grant is not so popular as when he ran in 1868. In the recent election he received just 9,378 votes less, notwithstanding he received the negro vote which he did not get in '68. The official figures, when all in from the various States, will furnish food for reflection upon the President's most enthusiastic admirers.

Those preachers who pretend to interpret the designs of Providence, having exhausted the Boston fire, are now turning their attention to the horse epidemic. A Cincinnati clergyman named Taylor, on Sunday night last, delivered a long discourse from a text in Exodus, ix, 3, "Behold, the hand of the Lord is upon the horses—a very grievous murrain."

The third and last session of the Forty-second Congress commences on Monday, the 24th of December, and ends on the 4th of March, 1873, by constitutional limitation. There will be no general session of the Forty-third Congress till December, 1873.

Hon. Robert Tyler, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee of Alabama, announces that there will be a Democratic majority of from four to five on joint ballot in the Legislature of that State. This will put a Democratic U. S. Senator in the place of Mr. Spencer.

In 1868 Grant had five majority in the City of Galena, Illinois, which is his home residence. At the late election Greely had 841 votes to Grant's 629. This was therefore a majority for Greely of 221. Grant appears to run the best where he is least known.

The Democracy of Knox were never in better condition, or more cordially united than they are at the present time. If an election would take place to-morrow, and a popular ticket nominated, we could carry the county by 500 majority.

Texas gives the next largest Democratic majority, Missouri being first on the list; besides she elects an unbroken Democratic delegation to Congress and has a heavy majority in the Legislature.

More of Grant's popularity is shown by the returns from Illinois. Notwithstanding he received the negro vote at the recent election, his vote is 9,578 less than it was in 1868.

When Monroe was elected President the second time his opponent, John Quincy Adams, got but one electoral vote. Let John Quincy Adams, Jr., take care. He came within one of getting as many votes as his grandfather.

Dr. Wing's Charges Against Messrs. W. R. Sapp and Ben. Grant.

MR. L. HARPER.—Sir: A communication appeared in your last issue over the signature of W. R. Sapp, in which he seeks, by indulging in personalities against me and a few flimsy statements, to exonerate himself and his confederate, Ben. Grant, from the odium of certain charges preferred by me against them at the Department of Internal Revenue in June last.

With your permission I will lay before your readers a statement of the charges, in order that they may judge for themselves to what extent they have been answered by Sapp's communication.

In my affidavit preferring the charges I set forth that I was the clerk in the office of the Assessor of Internal Revenue, during the months of April and May last, that during the same period Ben. Grant was the Assistant Assessor and Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue for the (Knox) county, and transacted his private and official business in the same room with myself; that on the first day of May, Grant made out an account against the United States for twenty-six days service performed during the month of April, (being the total number of working days in that month), specifying therein, the date of each day of service, and making oath thereto that his whole time, during business hours of each day, charged, was actually employed in collecting lists and making valuations, under the Revenue laws; that the account was certified to by W. R. Sapp, and a record made of the same by me in a book kept for that purpose in the Assessor's office; that the account so made by Grant, for the month of April, was false and fraudulent, for the reason that during a large number of the days charged, no service was performed by him for the Government, but that the time was actually devoted to other kinds of work, to wit: That on the first day of April, being the first Monday in April, and the day upon which the municipal election was held, Grant was a candidate for the position of Assessor of the 5th Ward of Mt. Vernon, and employed a large part of his time, during that day, in endeavoring to secure his own election and that of some of his favorite candidates for other offices; which can be fully substantiated by those whose interests or love of politics, induced them to attend the polls of the 5th Ward, on that day, that between the 13th and the 30th days of April, a large part of his time during business hours, was employed in assessing the personal property of the 5th Ward, as can be substantiated by the residents of the Ward, notwithstanding Sapp's thin attempt to evade the charge, by asserting that Grant's father assisted him. That about the 26th day of May, Grant presented an account for fifteen days services as Assessor of the 5th Ward, during the month of April, to the Auditor of Knox county, specifying therein the date of each day of service and making oath thereto that the particular days charged were actually employed in making assessments of the property in the 5th Ward.

Whether any of the Revenue officers in the month of April, 1872, did a thing of the kind, let it rest to them. It is not the duty of every opponent of the corrupt party now in power, to harmonize, and to so act in concert, that will convince all, that the Democratic and Liberal parties have not given up and withdrawn ingloriously from the field. I was in hope that the meeting at Columbus, on the 15th of November, would have accomplished something of importance, towards harmonizing the opposition. One thing the meeting did bring about, and that was to cause both wings of the opposition to look over the field, and try to find something to aid in bringing us together, as one great organization. Two propositions now agitate the opposition—One is shall we organize as a Democratic party? The other is—shall the opposition organize as the Liberal Party? For one I shall say no to both suggestions. We can do better. So far as the name of the two old parties are concerned they mean the same thing—"a government of the people." The action of the Republican party evidences more of a Monarchy than of a Republic, and to a monarchical form of government we are rapidly being driven.

Louis Napoleon, in his palmy days, never played more successfully the farce of "Election," than did Gen. Grant on the 9th of November, 1872. What shall we do to stay his kingly power? We shall try to arrest his steps, with organizations, or unite as a solid phalanx that will sweep away the hirelings from around the throne like chaff before the wind.

As a "Liberal" I am writing to forego my preference for the name for the good of my country. Are my Democratic friends willing to forego the name of "Democrat," for reasons similar to those given above? Or shall they destroy all hopes of success, by sticking to names that have lost their power? Would a Liberal party stand a chance of what two organizations failed to do? Or can the Democratic party accomplish what it could not do with the aid of the Liberal Republicans?

Let us harmonize and unite under the name of the "NATIONAL" party, and give battle unto the death to the Red Republicans, who now sway the destinies of our beloved Country. A LIBERAL.

The Sturges Will Case.

This celebration case, which has been on trial during last week, in the District Court at Mansfield, before Judges Welsh, Geddes and Follett, was brought to a close on Friday evening, by the case being reserved for the Supreme Court. The matter in dispute was as to, the division of real and personal estate of the deceased, E. P. Sturges, among his five children, and as to the meaning of the testator by the words, "It being my desire that each of my children shall have the benefit of as near the same amount of my property as convenient on becoming twenty-one years of age." The two oldest children, the oldest being thirty-six, when the youngest arrived of age, claim interest on their share from the time of their being of age, while the two younger children claim that their father's meaning was that all should share said share alike. Amanda Sturges, the youngest child, in whose name the suit is brought, is the wife of Colonel Hosmer, of Washington. The case involves about thirty-five thousand dollars. C. H. Scribner and Morrison and R. Waite, of Toledo representing the plaintiff in the case, and A. F. Perry, of Cincinnati, and Jacob Brinkerhoff, the defendant.

In the U. S. Circuit Court at New York, on Saturday, Judge Shipman decided against the Government in the suit to recover twenty-five thousand dollars from Ben. J. Cahoon, the alleged defaulting paymaster in the navy, and sureties, holding that Cahoon was a lunatic and unable to contract, and that his bond, to make any contract whatever.

THE BANNER.

WM. M. HARPER, LOCAL EDITOR.

Mount Vernon, Nov. 29, 1872

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

Butter has jumped up to 25 cents per pound, retail, and is scarce at that.

Hon. S. S. Cox has been making a visit to Zanesville and Columbus.

Dr. John L. Riggs, a prominent physician of Oxford, Holmes county, died a few days ago.

Four trains of cars passed through Mt. Vernon on Sunday on the B. & O. Railroad.

Mt. Vernon has several Mansard roofs, but they are on dwelling houses and not stores.

City Marshal J. A. Mitchell has been confined to his house for about two weeks, by severe illness.

In Hartford, Conn., the hearers are drawn by oxen. Mt. Vernon has not come to that complexion yet.

The gentle ox now goes through our streets, which is a novelty for the ox as well as the people.

Several thousand pounds of wool were sold at New Lisbon during the past week at 60 cents per pound.

Wooster is enjoying a big bore at present. The hole is now 345 feet deep, and the bottom has not been reached yet.

The horse epidemic has spread all over the country. The farm horses as well as the liveries horses, are afflicted.

Toy Hunt says he knows of several horses in town that commenced coughing in order to escape from work and get better feed.

Chickens, turkeys, geese, &c., are dying by the hundred along the Hudson river. We don't want the disease out this way.

The horse editor of the N. Y. World calls it "Hipporhinophlegmatolomoclastagmus." That's enough to kill any horse.

It is said that President Garrett, of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, lost by the recent failures in Baltimore from $600,000 to $750,000.

Our country patrons, who are in arrears for the BANNER, should not forget to call on us when they come to the city to pay their taxes.

The country is threatened with another visitation from the small-pox this winter. Get your arm vaccinated at once, and have some good vaccine matter applied.

Our citizens who laid in their supply of coal before the epidemic came to town are now congratulating themselves on their good fortune.

Some of our farmers, in coming to Mt. Vernon, leave their horses at some farm house, a mile or two from town. This is very foolish.

The City of New York, was last week sold to Messrs. Sperry, Raymond and Rogers for $4300.

There are two reasons why some people do not mind their own business. One is they have no business, and the other is they have no mind.

MARRIED—On the 26th of November, at the brides residence, by the Rev. J. Shearer, Mr. Finley McKibbin to Miss Louisa Mills.

MARRIED—On Thursday Nov. 21st, by Elder Herrod, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. Liberty, Mr. W. A. Thompson to Miss Ange A. Robertson.

Smoking and tobacco chewing is decidedly on the increase among the juveniles of this town. Quit it boys in your youth—when you get old you can't.

"Fritz" Voth served up for his customers on Saturday, a fat buffalo calf, sent to him by express from Kansas City by our former townman, Mr. A. Conolly.

It has been decided to run the line of Railroad from Oxford, to Dresden instead of to Coshocton. The people of Coshocton are not pleased with this arrangement.

There are quite a number of band some station houses being erected along the line of the C. Mt. V. & O. Railroad. Mr. Thomas, of Akron, has the contract for building them.

Our citizens cannot be too careful in guarding their premises against fire, especially as water is very scarce, and there are no horses in condition to pull the steam engine to a fire.

On Tuesday, the snow, the beautiful snow, came tumbling from heaven to earth below, when every pretty girl in town, with her beau, wished to go sleighing, you know, o'er hill and dale on the beautiful snow.

Timon Lodge No. 45, Knights of Pythias, gave a grand ball and supper (the former at Woodward's Hall and the latter at Wolf's Hall) on Wednesday evening. Both halls were well filled, and the affair throughout was a perfect success, reflecting great credit upon the members of the Lodge.

Important Railroad Meeting.
Pursuant to notice a meeting of the stockholders of the Cleveland, Mt. Vernon and Columbus Railroad Company was held at the Company's office in this city, on Wednesday morning; when it was agreed, by a unanimous vote, that a Branch of the Road should be built at once from Oxford, in Holmes county, to Dresden, in Muskingum county. Among the gentlemen present at the meeting were Mr. Messer of Pittsburgh, Mr. Orr of Orville, Mr. Harpster of Millersburg, and Mr. White of Gambier.

A Nice Present.
Our excellent friend Joe Miller, will please accept the thanks of the Harper family for the present of a monster turkey, which he had the goodness to send us a few days ago. It weighs 21 pounds, un-dressed, and was one of a pair which Mr. Miller shot while in Pleasant township one day last week down on gunning. It was young, tender and delicious—far surpassing any thing in the turkey line we have ever tasted. We hope our friend Joe will live to wing a thousand such turkeys; and we wouldn't be the least surprised if he brought home a dear with him one of these days.

Excitement at Dover.
Dr. O. G. Seldon, of Canal Dover, is charged with having procured an abortion on Miss Eliza Dahmer, of that place. The girl died Saturday week ago, and intense excitement prevails in the neighborhood. The Doctor was arrested and released on bail, and it is said has disappeared. Dr. Seldon is a fine physician, and he is much respected as a man. Any quantity, quality and color of stories are afloat in regard to this unfortunate affair. The Doctor's absence himself should not be taken as evidence of guilt; it is not always prudent for the innocent to place themselves at the mercy of an excited community.—Holmes County Farmer.

Common Pleas Court.

The Court of Common Pleas for Knox county continued in session during the past week—Judge Adams on the Bench. A great many judgments in collection cases, were taken, parties of real estate ordered, and dowers assigned. The following are the leading cases disposed of:

State of Ohio vs. John Kimball and Leander Morgan. Petit larceny—two cases. Plea guilty by both. Fined $25 and costs.

State vs. Philip Church. Assault and battery. Plea guilty. Fined $25 and costs.

State vs. John McGinnis. Petit larceny. Plea guilty. Ordered to make restitution in the sum of $29, pay a fine of $15 and costs, and imprisonment for fifteen days.

William Morris, Jr. vs. Nathaniel M. Young et al. as partners in the Bank of Fredericktown. Submitted to Court—Judgment for Plaintiff for $403.65, and costs.

M. W. Wright et al., Commissioners of Ashtabula county, vs. Philip Numan, Wm. Mahaffey and O. M. Arnold. Controversy about the ownership of some forty maps. Submitted to Court. Judgment finding right of possession of property in plaintiffs, and against Numan for all costs except on order of replevin and summons, which Mahaffey and Arnold are to pay.

Elizabeth A. George vs. Manhattan Life Insurance Company of New York. Judgment for Plaintiff for $21.45.

E. G. Woodward vs. O. C. Baugh. Appeal Judgment against Defendant for $70 and costs.

Samuel Rogers vs. Benj. Hamwell. Submitted to Court. Judgment for Defendant for costs.

Philip Numan vs. David C. Lewis. Suit on right of property in certain maps. Judgment against plaintiff for costs.

Basel Jones vs. C. G. Cooper & Co. Suit on bill of lumper. Verdict for Plaintiff for $30.46.

H. T. Porter vs. Jacob R. Robinson et al. Suit to recover possession of a pining mare. Tried by Jury. Verdict for Plaintiff for possession of property and damages for detention $100 and judgment accordingly.

The Horse Epidemic.
The horse disease, which broke out in our city about two weeks ago, is still raging with unabated violence. Our streets are almost entirely deserted by horses, and present a dull and gloomy appearance. Business, however, is nearly as good as usual, at this season of the year. Instead of express wagons, hand-carts, wheelbarrows, &c., are now employed in delivering packages in all parts of the city. The Busses have all ceased running to and from the depots. Armstrong & Tilton were "running" a two-wheeled vehicle, by horsepower, labeled "Epidemic proof," which serves as an advertisement as well as a delivery cart. Our coal dealers have great trouble in filling their contracts. Mr. Mills runs one wagon with mules and another with oxen, and it is rather ludicrous to see the driver teaching "Buck and Bright" how to "go" and "haw." Although most of the horses in town and a great many in the country are more or less affected with the disease, we have not as yet heard of a single death. The owners are taking every possible care of their horses, and many of them are improving gradually. The moment symptoms of the disease manifested themselves, the horses were taken from work, properly blanketed and cared for. It is believed that in a couple of weeks many of the horses will be entirely cured and ready to resume their regular work.

Fall of a Clergyman.
The people of Gambier and vicinity will be pained to hear of the fall of the Rev. Robert J. McElheny, a son of Professor McElheny of the Theological Seminary. This young gentleman, after being admitted to clerical honors, was appointed to the Rectory of two parishes, one at Hudson and the other at Peninsula, preaching on Sunday morning at the first place and Sunday evenings at the latter. He was rather popular as a preacher, notwithstanding a certain roughness of expression. Although certain irregularities were discovered some months ago, it was not until within the past few weeks that his strange and unaccountable depravity came to light. The details (which are published in the Cleveland and Akron papers) are too shameful and disgusting for reproduction in the columns of the BANNER. Suffice it is to say, that the greater part of his salary, instead of being set apart to pay his board bills and other proper expenses, was squandered in making trips to Cleveland and Pittsburgh, on visits to bad women, and in drinking, smoking and gaming. These practices were so revolting, as to induce his some friends to believe that he was really insane.

Money Lost and Found.
Mr. Wm. Dupin, of Union township, Knox county, was in Mt. Vernon on Saturday to receive his pay for a lot of hogs he had sold. The amount ($150) was enclosed in an envelope, and placed in his pocket for safe-keeping. He then went down street, unloaded some wood from his wagon and returned home. But upon looking for his money it was gone. He came back to the City on Saturday night, and supposing that the envelope containing the money might have dropped from his pocket, while unloading the wood, he procured a lantern, and to his great joy found the lost treasure on the street, at the spot where his wagon stood. We guess he will pin his money in his pocket the next lot of hogs he sells. Ans. C. S. I.

Route Agent.
James C. Corbin is the new route agent on the C. Mt. V. & O. Railroad. Mr. Sel O. Sapp, who was an applicant for the position, was unsuccessful, because the Congressman from the Akron district, claimed that the appointment belonged to him. Mr. Sapp, we understand, has the promise of a place as soon as the Through Express train starts to Mt. Vernon.

Thanks.
A silver fruit knife, belonging to the Editor of the BANNER, was lost on Gambier street, some weeks ago. It was afterwards found by Miss Devos of Pleasant township, who, seeing our initials on the handle, kindly returned it through Mr. H. C. Rath. The lady has our sincere thanks.

Mansfield and Tuscarawas Valley Railroad.
On Friday last, certificates of incorporation of this company were filed with the Secretary of State. A party started from Mansfield last Monday to explore the route by way of Nashville, Napoleon, Oxford and Bloomfield, in this county. The road is to run from Urichville to Mansfield and then connect with the road running to Toledo upon which the iron is nearly all laid.—Holmes County Farmer.

LITERARY NOTICES.

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY for December maintains its high character as the leading literary Magazine of our country. Among the contributors to this number are: John A. Coleman, Charles Atkins, Paul H. Hayne, James De Mille, J. W. DeFont, Marian Douglas, Francis Parkman, Mrs. Oella Thaxter, James Partin, Edgar Fawcett, Oliver Wendell Holmes, and others. Published at Boston by Jas. R. Osgood & Co. at $4 a year, or single copies 35 cents. Two copies, $7.00; ten copies $30.

LOCKE'S NATIONAL MONTHLY.—We have received the initial number of this new candidate for public favor, published at Toledo, Ohio, by Messrs. Locke & Jones. It is a neatly executed magazine of 48 pages, and is well filled with original articles, in prose and verse, among which are a poem by Mr. D. E. Locke, entitled "1861-1871" and a story, "The Misanthropes." It is decidedly the best Dollar Magazine in the United States. It starts with a list of ten thousand subscribers.

THE LADY'S FRIEND.—The December number of the Lady's Friend is filled with choice reading for the holidays. Its embellishments are unusually fine, and so are also the fashion plates, patterns, &c. Price, $2 a year, or $2.50 with a premium chromo. Published by Deacon & Peterson, Philadelphia.

OUR YOUNG FOLKS for December is a splendid number, containing stories, poetry and sketches from J. T. Trowbridge, Rose Terry, Elizabeth S. Phelps, Nellie Fyster, N. A. Eliot, and many other popular writers. Published by James R. Osgood & Co., Boston, at $2 per annum.

A Puzzled Landlord.
Bob, Chief, of the "Commercial House," was in a terribly perplexed condition the other night, but he worked his way through in a very adroit manner. Twelve "customers" came off the cars, and each called for a separate room, while there were only eleven spare rooms in the house. But he managed to accommodate them all, and put the twelve men in the eleven rooms, each one having a single room.

Here are the eleven rooms:
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11

"Now," said he "if two of you will step into No. 1, I'll find a spare room for one of you as soon as I show the other gentlemen thieves."

Having put two gentlemen in No. 1, he proceeded to put the third in No. 2, the 4th in No. 3, the 5th in No. 4, the 6th in No. 5, the 7th in No. 6, the 8th in No. 7, the 9th in No. 8, the 10th in No. 9, the 11th in No. 10, then coming back to No. 1 where he had left the two first or the 12th gentleman along with the first he said, "I have now accommodated all the rest and still have a room to spare. So if one of you will please step into No. 11, you'll find it empty. So it was the twelfth gentleman got his room. And now reader we expect you to decide which is the "odd man" before you consider yourself competent to keep a hotel.

Cure for the Horse Disease.
A correspondent of the Zanesville Courier, who says he has had long experience with horses and cattle, gives the following recipe, knowing it to be good, not only to cure sick horses, but to prevent well ones from getting sick:
1 lb. Rosh.
2 oz. Copars.
1 lb. Sulfate.
1 lb. Baking Soda.
1 lb. Flaxseed.
2 oz. Antimony.

Pulverize to a fine powder, and give a tablespoonful each evening, in damp feed. If corn is fed, straw should be fed with it. Feed oats and hay, well damped; keep stable warm; be careful to prevent a cold draft upon your horses through door, or other openings. If horse is very sick, wash his feet with warm water, and rub until perfectly warm and dry.

A Success.
The Baptist Sabbath School Institute of the Mt. Vernon Association, which was held at Fredericktown, on Thursday and Friday of last week, was all the friends of the Sabbath School would desire. A general good feeling prevailed throughout the entire proceedings, and a deep interest manifested by all who were in attendance.—Mt. Vernon Sentinel.

Fearful Storm in Minnesota—800 Men Starving.
We have terrible tidings of a dread disaster in Minnesota. A fearful snow storm visited that State cutting off communication with 800 men, who were employed in constructing a railroad from Winona. They are 100 miles from communication with the world, with a limited supply of provisions. Attempts to reach them by a train through the snow have been unsuccessful, it having penetrated but twenty-five miles in three days, and was still twenty miles from the unfortunate men. The storm had continued in great fury for six days, and it was feared the men would starve before supplies reached them.

In the thanksgiving proclamation of Gov. Edwin McKee, of Colorado, one of the causes enumerated why the whole people of the territory should give thanks to the Almighty God is the fact that "the people have voted to us another four years of Republican government." McKee is sure of his governorship for an indefinite period.

Colorado Territory is indeed prosperous, a sort of Western Eden. Here, before the Territory has imported largely of Eastern flour and grain; but this year over a million pounds of Colorado wheat have already been shipped from Denver to St. Louis, and it is largely sought for to mix with inferior grades of Eastern Spring wheat.

What Unspeakable Relief!
Is afforded to the burning and throbbing flesh by a single application of that unequalled balm for human or brute suffering, Mexican Mustang Liniment. The tormenting and flesh-destroying pains of rheumatism, gout and neuralgia, and completely banished by its use; stiffness of the joints and painful swellings, quickly yield to its emollient influence; it heals bruises, cuts, scalds, etc., with astonishing rapidity. For straining spring-halls, sore chaps, saddle and harness galls, as well as the more serious external maladies of the horse, it is a swift and thorough remedy.

The Only Remedy.
Those who suffer from foul breath are open to the charge of carelessness. It is an offense that can be speedily abated, as a single bottle of the fragrant SOZONOT will unmistakably accomplish the work. No toilet-table should be without it. It will preserve and keep the teeth white, and the breath pure and sweet.

Spalding's Glue, who would be without it?

OHIO STATE NEWS.

The Reservoir, near Hebron, Licking county, is now eight feet below high water mark, lower than ever known before.

A laborer engaged in grading the railroad near Toledo unearthed a twenty dollar gold piece, and the company got a full quart of a mile of grading done gratis by excited treasure-hunters.

George W. Adams, of Dresden, has made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors, Judge Marsh assigned. The liabilities are $200,000 and assets about $500,000, including about 8,000 acres of valuable land.

Hon. J. T. Wilson, Congressman from the Ironton (Ohio) district, is ill, not having been out of his room for five weeks, except on election day, when he rode 150 yards to cast his vote.

Rev. Shrom, of Ashland county, has been unanimously called by the congregation, to the pulpit of the First Presbyterian Church, of Zanesville, vacated some time ago by Prof. Webster, of Granville.

Application has been made to the Morgan County Court for an injunction to restrain the Commissioners from levying and collecting the sum ($210,000) recently voted by the people for railroad purposes.

The Campaign County Court of Common Pleas opened in Urbana on Monday morning, with over two hundred and fifty cases on the docket, among which are four penitentiary cases pending before the grand jury for indictment.

The Spirit says there is a young girl named Kerner, aged 17 years, a resident of Switzerland township, Monroe county, who weighs 500 pounds. At the age of 13 years she weighed a little over 300 pounds.

It is announced by telegraph that Mr. C. W. Potwin is in Washington wending up the affairs of the Second National Bank of Zanesville, of which he is President and principal stockholder. It is said that Mr. Potwin will remove to Chicago.

The Athens Messenger learns from one of the contractors that the Athens Lunatic Asylum will be wholly under roof before severe weather sets in, and that the building will be ready for occupancy about next October.

Dennis Dowd, aged sixty-five, a farmer in the township of Dover, Cuyahoga county, committed suicide by hanging, on Sunday morning. He was suffering from aberration of mind.

The Commissioners of Tuscarawas county have let, since April last, the work of building fifty bridges and culverts in that county. Nine of these are iron bridges, two of them one hundred feet span, and fifty are over fifty feet span.

On Thursday a collision occurred on the Zanesville and Cincinnati Short Line Railroad, near Verona, about thirty miles from Covington, between two freight trains. One locomotive was totally demolished and the other damaged. Loss estimated at $40,000. Three men were slightly injured.

John Coon, one of the proprietors of a steam saw mill, in Farmersville, Montgomery county, was terribly mutilated while filing a saw last Monday. Some one turned on steam and the saw nearly severed Coon's leg before his perilous situation was discovered. The physician thinks he will save the leg.

At a meeting of the Trustees of Buchtel College, the widow of the late Rev. George Messenger donated $25,000 to endow the chair of Mental and Moral Philosophy. A gentleman of Springfield, has agreed to endow another chair with the same amount, and a lady of Akron will do the same. Rev. A. Wilson was elected Trustee in place of the deceased Rev. Mr. Messenger.

A thief entered Mayor Sigman's room at the Phillips House, at Dayton, Friday night and stole his gold watch and chain. A $400 watch, belonging to General Bates, was also taken. Prugh's dry goods store was entered the same night by burglars, and silks amounting to $2,000 in value were stolen. Colonel Russ' room in the Merchants' Hotel was also entered, and his gold watch stolen.

Abraham DeLong, of Van Wert, a soldier in the 46th O. V. T., died recently. His death was caused by a musket ball received at Mission Ridge, Nov. 25, 1864. He picked his skull and remained in his house. The Van Wert Bulletin says: "During his last suffering, Mr. DeLong was rational at times, but would occasionally imagine that he was in the army, and introduced himself as Sergeant DeLong."

On Friday morning a sad accident occurred in the railroad yard at Galena. A man named Henry Bush, in the employ of the C. C. & I. Railroad, pulled the switch and as he attempted to step away, his foot caught in the guard rail. When he tried to jerk his foot out, he fell and an engine train passed over his body. The engineer could not see him for the pony engine was backing up, and all that was heard was a cry. Bush was a single man, of good habits, and is much lamented by his fellows.

Notice.
HERBERT C. FOWLER, Dentist, has gone to Cincinnati to attend a course of lectures and practical instruction in the Dental College of that city, so as to further perfect him in the knowledge of his profession. In consequence of which his office will be closed until the first of March next. Nov. 29-2v

Perhaps no real medicine ever, gained the rapid popularity which Castoria has done. One person relates their experience of its good effects to another. It is a vegetable preparation, perfectly harmless, pleasant to take; does not distress or grip, but regulates the system, and is sure to operate when all other remedies have failed. Any person who has ever used Castoria for Stomach Ache, Constipation, Cramp, Flatulency, Worms, Piles, or deranged Liver, will never again use any nauseating Oil, Bitter Pills, or Narcotic Syrup. The Castoria contains neither Minerals, Morphine nor Alcohol. By its soothing, quieting effect it produces natural sleep, and is particularly adapted to curing and teaching children. It costs but 25 cents, and one bottle will save many dollars in doctors' bills. nov. 29-1

Knox County Farmer.

Curing Pork.
Some thirty years ago I lodged from Saturday to Monday with an inn-keeper in the country, who was also a farmer.

On the table for Sunday dinner, there was a nice piece of pickled pork, boiled the day before. On tasting it, I thought it the most delicious I ever ate. I requested "mine host" to give me his recipe for curing pork. He replied as follows:

"As soon as my hogs are dressed and cool enough to be cut, I pack the side pieces in a barrel or cask, with plenty of salt on all sides of each piece, and when my barrel is full I immediately roll it to my pump and pump in water until I can see the water cease to sink in the vessel, or to moisten the salt on top of the cask. I then lay a flat stone, as large as the vessel will receive, on the contents, so as to exclude the flies, and there it remains until a piece is wanted. Care must be taken to keep the meat under the pickle, otherwise it will rust."

Here is the whole secret of making good pickled pork for family use. We have used the above method, and we want no better, easier or more economical plan. It has often happened that when we wanted to put down new pork there remained some of the old in the bottom of the cask. In that case we poured off the pickle, took the undissolved salt, packed the fresh pork on the top of the old, using the salt which had been in the cask, with the addition of fresh salt if necessary, and then poured on the old pickle or water. In this way we have had pork three or four years in the bottom of our pork barrel, and when used it was as fresh from the hog as it was three weeks after it was put down. Indeed, we seldom emptied our pork barrel, except when it went hooping. We believe that boiling pork is useless, if not injurious. Pork ought not if it can be prevented, to be frozen before it is put down.

The best pork that we ever saw was that from some pigs under the charge of a lad who took as much care of them as some people do of their children. Every day he used to give them a dinner of hot potatoes for he said that he didn't see why a pig "shouldn't have their taters hot as well as himself." Then he used to scrub them several times a week with brush and soap, rinsing them well with clear water. The animals seemed to enjoy this lavation, and used to press quite eagerly toward him as he came in sight with his pail and scrubbing-brush. Their sty was also kept perfectly clean, and the air was spread out frequently. In consequence the pork was perfection.

As a general thing it is a good plan to reject pork made from hogs that have been kept by distillers or brewers; but, if possible, get pork that has been bred and fed by a dairyman, and finished off with corn.—Cor. Country Gentleman.

Driving Colts in Harness.
Great care should be taken not to drive the colt too much at first, and at no time sufficient to produce exhaustion. Neither should his strength be taxed too much by driving up or down hill, until he has become accustomed to the noise and restraint of the wagon and learned to use his strength as required. Let his drives be moderate at first, both in gait and distance; about a mile or two on a walk first, gradually increasing the distance and gait, being careful not to crowd him to breaking. If he must not be expected because your colt is perhaps a good mover, that he will be a fast trotter. But if he is a real good stepper, it is so much the more necessary for you to use judgment and prudence in his training. There is usually too much anxiety to try a colt's speed and bottom, and he is often pushed, driven and spoiled, perhaps, before his powers are fully developed.

A colt must not be crowded too much in educating to harness. It is evident that he can not be expected to submit quietly to the irritation and excitement of harness and wagon, and drive quietly like an old horse, without experience. He must grow into familiarity with these things from usage and contact with them. The trainer must be particularly careful in the outset to overcome all fear from things touching the hind legs and parts of the body. This lesson must be very thorough, and of such progressive step in educating the colt is attempted, this point must not be lost sight of, and each successive point is clearly and thoroughly accomplished. The careful, careful labor will be rewarded in the possession of a kind, gentle, trusting and well-behaved animal, whose services will always afford pleasure to his owner and driver.—Prof. Magner.

DR. WILSON'S
COUGH MIXTURE.
This Medicine is the prescription of a regular physician, and has been used for many years in a very extensive practice for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, whether acute or chronic. It cures Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma, Inflammation of the Lungs, old Croup, Hoarseness, and all other diseases of the Throat and Lungs. It is the best remedy known. Sold by all dealers in Medicine at 50 cents.

THE BEST LINIMENT OF THE AGE.
Cures Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Chilblains, Bruises, Sprains, Flesh Wounds, Burns, Scalds, Bore (Wound) or Quinsy, Frost Bites, and should be used whenever a Liniment is required. Cures Lameness, Sprains, Rheumatism, Wounds, Collar Bole or Galls on Horses. It is sold by all dealers in Medicine at 50 cents.

Knows that the world is full of humbug medicines to impose upon the credulity of the sick and afflicted, the proprietors of these Medicines, have the honor of all being deceived by fully guaranteed FERGUSON'S Wonderful Oil, and hereby authorize dealers to refund the money and charge back to us whenever they fail to do so. Large Bottles, only 50 cents. Sold everywhere.

WEBB'S VEGETABLE
Worm Confections.
Are a positive and speedy remedy for the removal of Worms. They are pleasant to the taste, and any child will take them. If your child has Worms, you will notice that the appetite is diminished and variable, often more than ordinarily voracious. There is a swelling of the face, bloatedness, distention of the belly, grinding of the teeth, and boring of the nose. The child is sometimes very pale and again flushed. These are only a few of the symptoms of Worms, which, if left without medicine to remove them, will produce convulsions or die, and frequently, to remove the Worms, buy Webb's Vegetable Worm Confections.

Sold by all dealers in Medicine at 25 cents. Wholesale by C. E. WEBB & BROS., Drug and Apothecaries, Jackson, Mich.
